SYGINT VINCENT.

AN ORDINANCE to render the Police Force liable to Military Service in case of invasion.

[10th July, 1913.]

Be it enacted by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of St. Vincent as follows:

1. (1) In the case of actual or apprehended invasion,
No. 10 of 1913.

error to employ the police force for actual military service.

(2) After the making of any such order, and until the same shall be revoked, every officer, non-commissioned officer and other member of the Police Force, or of the part thereof to which the order applies, as the case may be, shall be deemed on actual military service.

(3) The Governor may revoke any such order.

(4) Every officer, non-commissioned officer and other member of the Police Force employed on actual military service shall be subject and liable to the provisions and penalties contained in any Imperial Act for the time being in force relating to the discipline and regulation of His Majesty's Army, and to the Articles of War made in pursuance thereof.

2. When any officer, non-commissioned officer or other member of the Police Force is killed in actual military service, or dies from wounds or disease contracted on actual military service, provision may be made for his wife and family out of the general revenue in accordance with the rules and regulations for the time being in force regulating the provision made in like case for the wives and families of officers, non-commissioned officers and men of His Majesty's Army.

3. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Police (Liability to Military Service) Ordinance, 1913".

Passed the Legislative Council the 10th day of June, 1913, and published in the Government Gazette this 10th day of July, 1913.

S. C. CONNELL,
Acting Clerk of Councils.
