Spring 2010

Table of Contents
SYMPOSIUM
Whither the Board?
The National Labor Relations Board at 75

INTRODUCTIONS

Introduction............................................................. Wilma B. Liebman 335

Foreword ................................................................. Kerri Lynn Stone 341

ARTICLES

Rebuilding the Board: An Argument for Structural Change, Over Policy Prescriptions, at the NLRB......................................................... R. Alexander Acosta 347

Improving the Administration of the National Labor Relations Act Without Statutory Change .................................. Samuel Estreicher 361

The Contemporary “Fist Inside the Velvet Glove”: Employer Captive Audience Meetings Under the NLRA ..................................................... Paul M. Secunda 385

The Potential of Rulemaking by the NLRB.............. Jeffrey S. Lubbers 411

Defending the NLRB: Improving the Agency’s Success in the Federal Courts of Appeals .......... Jeffrey M. Hirsch 437

Victims on Trial? A Backpay Case at the NLRB...................................................... Thomas W. Brudney 465

The Vanishing Employee: Putting the Autonomous Dignified Union Worker Back to Work................................. Anne Marie Lofaso 495
Can Unions Use Worker Center Strategies?:
In an Age of Doing More With Less,
Unions Should Consider Thinking Locally
But Acting Globally..........................................................Jennifer Hill  551

The Role of the Judiciary When the Agency
Confirmation Process Stalls:
Thoughts on the Two-Member NLRB
and the Questions the Supreme Court
Should Have, But Didn’t, Address in
New Process Steel, L.P. v. NLRB ......................... Catherine L. Fisk  593

Mandatory Disclosure in the Market for Union Representation ........................................ Matthew T. Bodie  617

Private Injuries, Public Policies:
Adjusting the NLRB’s Approach to Backpay Remedies........................................ James J. Brudney  645

A New Board Policy on Deferral to Arbitration:
Acknowledging and Delimiting Union
Waiver of Employee Statutory Rights ...............Michael C. Harper  685

Two Is Company but Is It a Quorum? ..................John Sanchez  715

Two Is Company and Two Can Be a Quorum:
A Reply to Professor Sanchez......................... Dennis P. Walsh  739

COMMENTS

Regulating Sovereign Wealth Funds in the U.S.:
A Primer on SWFs and CFIUS ............................ Adam Gutin  745

Taking One for the Team:
The Persistent Abuse of Eminent Domain
in Sports Stadium Construction..............................David Mark  781