of the Principal Ordinance.

4. Section 66 (6) of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and there shall be inserted in lieu thereof the following :—

(6.) If the name of any person is entered in respect of property situate in more than one ward, he shall, by written communication addressed to and served upon the Town Clerk not later than 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the day before the day fixed for the sitting of the Court, declare in which of those wards he desires his name to be retained as a burgess, and in default of his so declaring, the court shall determine in which of such wards his name shall be so retained ; and thereupon the court shall strike out the name of such person wherever else it shall have been entered in the burgess list.

Repeal of Section 128 (3)
of the Principal Ordinance.

5. Section 128 (3) of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and there shall be inserted in lieu thereof the following :—

House rate payable on new house.

128.—(3.) Where the new house valued under this section stands upon premises already assessed and rated to house rate in the house rate book in force under the same description as the new house bears, the rate payable in respect of such new house for the unexpired portion of the year in which it was erected shall be calculated upon the difference between the annual rateable value of the premises before the erection of such new house and the annual rateable value of the premises after the completion of such new house ; and such rate, as well as the rate appearing in the house rate book in force before the erection of such new house, shall be a charge upon such new house ; and all necessary entries and alterations shall be made in the house rate book in force.

6. Section 341 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by striking out the words "land on which such new house is erected" in the 4th and 5th lines, and reading in lieu thereof the words "premises already assessed and rated to water rates in the water rate book in force under the same description as the new house bears." Amendment of Section 341 of Ordinance 24 of 1914.

7. Section 400 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby repealed, and there shall be inserted in lieu thereof the following:— Sewerage rate payable on new house.

400. When any new house is erected in the city after the commencement of any sewerage rate year, there shall be paid in respect of such new house, in addition to any rates already levied and payable in respect of the premises already assessed and rated to sewerage rates in the sewerage rate book in force under the same description as the new house bears, an additional sewerage rate calculated for the period from the date of the completion of such new house to the end of the current sewerage rate year upon the difference between the annual rateable value of the premises before the erection of such new house and the annual rateable value thereof after the completion of such new house; and such additional sewerage rate shall be due and payable on such date as may be fixed by the Corporation.

8. Where any tree or the branches thereof or any brushwood or hedge overhang any street, it shall be lawful for the Corporation to serve a notice on the owner or occupier of the lands whereon such tree, brushwood or hedge is planted, requiring such owner or occupier to cut off and remove such branches, brushwood or hedge within a time to be specified in such notice; and if such owner or occupier shall refuse or neglect to comply with such notice within the time therein specified it shall be lawful for the City Engineer or any person authorised by him to cut off and remove such branches, brushwood or hedge, and for that purpose, if necessary, to enter into or upon the lands whereon such brushwood, tree or hedge is planted or Overhanging trees.
